We are Committed

1. To provide quality education suited to the aspirations of our country and to the emerging global challenges.
2. To provide personalised education, maximizing the God-given talents of our students, making them physically strong, mentally alert and spiritually committed.
3. To cultivate in them the spirit of co-operation and to lead them from information to knowledge and from knowledge to wisdom.
4. To inculcate abiding values in our students and to develop in them genuine concern for Love, Truth, Justice and Human Rights.
5. To nurture in them a sense of national commitment and love for the rich heritage of our country, affirming its unity in diversity.
6. To foster in them respect for all religions, the spirit of tolerance, secularism and non-violence as well as the values of scientific temper and good work ethic.
7. To offer these facilities to at least a few deserving students from the economically poor section of society irrespective of caste and creed.
